Dear Dick:

How thoughtful of you to write me on July 2, 1973, regarding the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board. I have enjoyed membership on it and especially the opportunity it gave to have regular contact with you. I believe you are aware of my admiration which, coming to think about it, has continued over quite a few years!

I am delighted that Bill Colby and you are in charge and I predict a very successful era for CIA.

Please say hello to Bill for me, and with warmest regards and repeated thanks for your thoughtfulness.

Yours sincerely,
Bob

Dear Vern:

It was nice of you to write and I do appreciate your very gracious letter.

My experience worldwide with the CIA has impressed me with the high caliber of your people and their dedication to the welfare of this Nation -- and that goes for Headquarters, too!

With all good wishes,

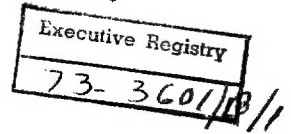

Sincerely,

Dear General Walters:

I am writing on behalf of Dean Krogh and myself to thank you for your gracious reply to our invitation to join the Board of our proposed Institute for the Study of Ethics and International Affairs. We fully appreciate the competing claims on your time and attention and understand your decision to decline the invitation.

I hope that the interest which you expressed in the project will continue. From time to time we may forward to you some news about the progress of the Institute for your information.

With every best wish for your work, I remain,

Sincerely,
